UNDERRATED On Wednesdays in Lent, join us for a meal at 5:30 p.m. followed by worship at 6:30 p.m. This year, our Wednesday evening series is called "Underrated." In Isaiah 53, we learn that the Messiah would be someone who wouldn't stand out in the normal ways, but in every way, He would be underrated. Throughout Jesus' life, He embodied five underrated characteristics that He invited His followers to also embody. As we journey together, we'll learn five key words from the Hebrew and Greek language that help us see how lasting Jesus' impact still is. Join us every Wednesday evening in fellowship and worship. Note from the kitchen: Wednesday, March 6 Lenten supper menu is Italian-pastas, salad, desert etc. A suggested donation of $5 (18 and younger free) will be appreciated. Come and enjoy!

EASTER OUTREACH MINISTRY This is a wonderful opportunity to reach out with the Love of Jesus to our Abounding Joy family and into the community. This ministry will begin this Sunday March 3rd. See the display table in the fellowship area where you are invited to take an egg from the Easter basket. Purchase a gift card as named on the egg (indicate the $ amount on the card, a sharpie works well). Return your purchased gift card by March 24th to the container provided on the display table. Cash gifts are also welcomed! If you are aware of a family, neighbor, coworker, or shut-in who is struggling and would benefit from this ministry, please contact Pastor Brandon. The names are held in confidence. The gifts received will be distributed the week before Easter. Thank you so much! If questions contact: Elaine Mullenmaster: 320-493-2554.

God's Word is Powerful and Sufficient

"Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me—practice these things, and the God of peace will be with you." (Philippians 4:8-9)

For our honeymoon, Monique and I went on an adventure with a self-driving tour of Ireland for ten days. As 25 year old newlyweds, this seemed like a fun and fantastic idea - and it truly was! Ireland is such an enchanting, welcoming place, with many helpful and kind folks who truly desire for you to feel safe and comfortable while enjoying your stay.

When thinking about Ireland, one can't help but remember St. Patrick and his profound impact on this island and on the witness of faith. Though it's not quite March, he is the history-maker I'd like to introduce you to today.

Patrick was born in Britain during the fourth century to Christian parents. However, when he was 16 years old, he was kidnapped by Irish pirates who took him back to Ireland, where he was held captive and did forced labor for six years. At this time, Ireland was a land filled with paganism and superstition. Patrick worked primarily as a shepherd, and it was this activity that deepened and formed his spiritual life. Patrick became a person of prayer.

At 22, Patrick ended up escaping from the pirates and boarded a ship that eventually got him back to Britain. While there, Patrick began studying Christianity more deeply. It was also at this time that he felt called by God to be a missionary, and the land he would go to was where he had just left.

After his ordination, Patrick was faithful to that call, and returned to Ireland. For 29 years, he worked hard, proclaiming the Gospel and establishing monasteries (the foundations of some can still be seen and visited). With courage and boldness, he stood up to bloodthirsty kings and pagan rulers demanding that they end practices of bloodshed and commanding they repent of their sins. All this while, Patrick prayed against the spiritual battle that also plagued the nation.

One of Patrick's most legendary and famous teachings (and evangelistic tools) involved the shamrock. Known for its three leaves connected at the center, Patrick taught that this is an image of the Trinity. Among the nation, three was a significant number, as were the idea of triple deities. Like Paul with the Athenians, Patrick named the God who is three in one, and led many to faith in Christ.

All this happened slowly at first; but gradually, the nation of Ireland changed through Patrick's example. A culture emerged that was embedded in Christian values that deemed all life was worthy of caring for and protecting. In a sense, the nation became something new.

Patrick made history in Ireland, but he knew it was only by the powerful hand of God that anything happened at all. Patrick trusted Jesus deeply and that is what compelled him to live reliant on prayer. He even said as much in his own words, "If I have any worth, it is to live my life for God."

Today, we thank God for using a man like Patrick to make His name known and to transform the world. We remember his witness, learn from his example, all as he pointed to Jesus. Pastor Brandon

TABLE-TALK: The Household's Christian Calendar

Join us for an evening of fellowship and conversation Sunday, April 14 with dinner at 5:30 pm.

The Christian life is a life of continued hearing of God's Word about the great things He has done for us in Jesus. In this Table-Talk we will consider the importance of family devotional life and look at how observing days, weeks, and even years of the Christian calendar can be a great tool for our family life of faith, especially as we wonder how to pass faith in Christ to the next generation.

Our guest speaker, Kristen Einertson, is a blogger and a co-founder of All the Household, a one-stop shop for teaching and learning about Lutheran liturgical traditions. Kristen is the wife of Christian Einertson and mother of Theodore and Mary. She and her family live in Farmington, MN.

Please sign up at the info table or let Tim know you are coming, so that we have enough food ready for everyone. Childcare for younger kids can be provided upon request.

Named after Martin Luther's custom to discuss various important topics at the dinner table, Table-Talk is an opportunity for families and people of all ages to engage important topics and questions in light of God's Word.

HOLY WEEK

On Palm Sunday, March 24, we sing "Hosanna!" to the King who came to give His life for His people and enter into the week of Jesus' passion with Him.
